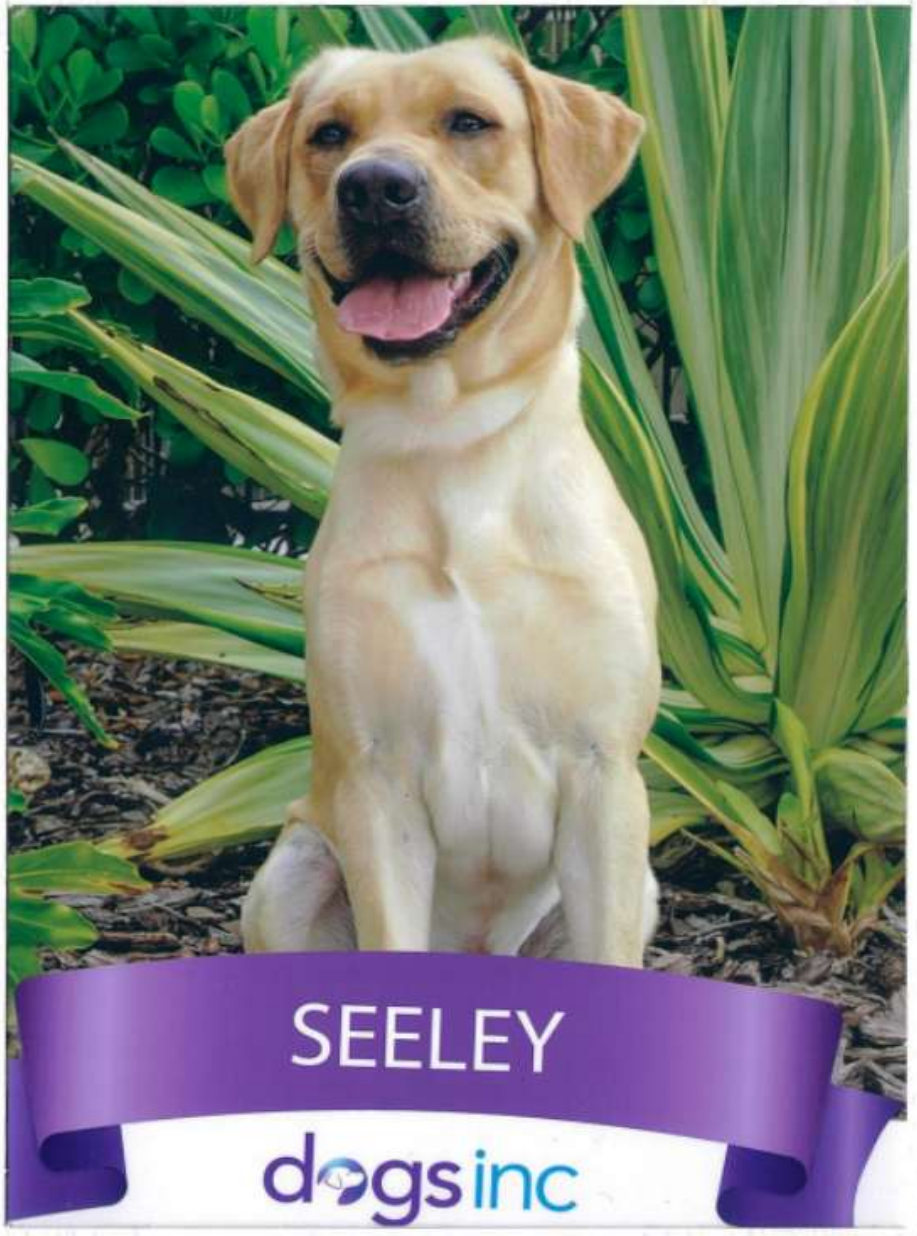
I was young



After High School

dogsinc

Dear Sponsor,

Thanks to your generous support and the loving care of my puppy raiser, I have officially graduated from high school! I recently arrived back at Dogs Inc Canine University to begin my advanced skills training.

Together, the instructors and medical team will carefully evaluate my personality, health, temperament, and trainability to help determine the best career path for me. In my class, many of us will specialize in one of the following careers:

Guide dogs, turning darkness into light:

- Offer freedom and confidence to teens, adults, and veterans with vision loss.

Service dogs, restoring freedom:

- Offer hope for veterans healing from physical and invisible wounds
- Strength for Gold Star family members carrying the weight of sacrifice (coming soon)
- Lifesaving support for people living. With diabetes (coming soon)

Skilled Companion dogs, comforting in times of need:

- Friendship to children, teens, and adults with vision loss facing isolation.
- Hope to veterans battling with loneliness
- Relief to military families grappling with stress
- Love to Gold Star families coping with grief

Therapy dogs, bringing healing:

- Peace to patients and healthcare workers at military facilities across the U.S.
- Comfort to first responder facilities in the Tampa Bay Area

Puppy Parents, securing the next generation:

- Selected for top-notch qualities and traits they ensure continuity of our lines; matched and placed in pre-screened volunteer host homes